PASTOR'S REFLECTION

The journey of Lent invites us to look at our relationship with God and one another. We are in a time of reflection, penance, and purification as we prepare to renew our baptismal promises at Easter. Our readings today speak to us the truth that God, the giver of life is stronger than death itself.

In our First Reading, the Prophet Ezekiel speaks to the Jewish people who suffer because of the Babylonian exile. Their dry bones lay scattered across the ground like sticks. In a vision given in the verses just before our first reading today, Ezekiel prophesies over the bones: "Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord." And as he prophesies he hears the rattling of bones coming together, with skin and flesh being added and from the four winds the spirit comes, and this new creation comes alive and stands upright! God says to the people of Israel: "I will put my spirit in you that you may live!"

In a similar fashion we see Jesus standing at the entrance of the tomb of his friend Lazarus, his lifeless body, like those dry bones, emphasizing the finality that is found in the face of death. Here Jesus comes face to face with the human condition, the terrible, heart-wrenching experience of the death of someone we love. And Jesus wept.

Jesus loved Lazarus, Martha and Mary just as he loves all of us, his beloved. The glory to be revealed is the truth that Divine Love is more powerful than death. At this point Martha still sees Jesus simply as a holy person who is close to God. She will soon see that he is more than that. Jesus is the great I AM that gave the breath of life to humanity at the time of creation, the great I AM who breathed life into the people of Israel, the great I AM who will breathe life into Lazarus.

In the face of grief Jesus invites Martha to dig deep into her heart. He says to her: "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." Then Jesus asks Martha to make his statement her own. Taking the journey from the head to the heart, Martha replies, "Yes Lord, I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God." I believe our personal response to this basic question is why we are gathered in prayer today. We profess, "Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that you are the resurrection and the life."

And so, God is calling us to come out of the tomb of our sin, our fears and worries, disappointments and loss, loneliness or depression, our doubt or unbelief, whatever it is that is lifeless or like dry bones inside of us. Jesus came that we might have life not only for today but for all eternity. Through the gift of God's reconciling love, we can be untied and freed from sin, selfishness, jealousy, evil desires, anger, resentment or any troublesome burden.

The life we share in baptism is the gift of everlasting life. The meal that we share today is heavenly food. Yes, Jesus is our resurrection and our life. Not just at the end of time, but now! Allow the beauty of this truth to enter deeply into your heart and then in turn share the gift of life you have received in the Eucharist with others. Be a living tabernacle of God's presence in your home, with your family and to all you meet this week.

If you receive a text or email about buying iTunes or other gift cards for Fr. Angelo, know that it is a scam. He would never ask you to do so.

Lenten Pilgrimage: Clermont County, 1837, St. Philomena Church, Stonelick Williams Corner Rd., Box 85, Owensville, 45160. www.stparish.org

The parish of St. Philomena was established in 1837 and sometimes referred to as the Little Church in the Valley. It was built from logs for $50. St Philomena is the oldest Catholic Church in Clermont County. The first pastors were Rev. Claude Gacon and Rev. William Chemoyel of France. In 2015 as part of the celebration of their 175th anniversary, there was an archeology dig to locate the original log church. The original Little Church in the Valley had burned down in 1868. There were four churches, in that parish region, who participated in the search. The parishioners were successful in locating the foundation of the original building.

Reflection: Is my life nourished and sustained by the sacraments?

Miles- Exercise 206 and Spiritual 615 total weekly miles were 821, and the total for the pilgrimage is 2623 miles (59%). We are over halfway in just a few weeks.

You are doing a great job! Now that the weather is getting better you might want to think about taking a drive to one or more of these parishes. St. Philomena is in a beautiful spot but watch you might miss it, as its situated off a main road. Miles calculations can be found and submitted on the Radiate Christ website or email ddcc2021lentenpilgrimage@gmail.com, or call 937-938-6286. Keep up the great work.
