2. Kevin 16.30
Kevin's eye of the store

Kevin met his wife at Drug Mart. The scandal.
When she quit she yelled, "see you in hell" on her way out.

...

He is madly in love with her.
I don't think she likes him very much.

Everyday Kevin asks you what drive thru he should visit on his way home from work.
Sometimes he complains to you about Chuck.
Sometimes he talks about being transferred to another store.
If we didn't have Kevin, everything would fall into disarray.

3 Chuck- 24.45

Chuck is also a Drug Mart manager.
Chuck has perfect teeth, and the most luxurious mustache you've ever seen.
Chuck hates customers.

Chuck likes to work in nonperishables because there you don't have to rotate products.
Chuck is often tailed by a gaggle of teenage male employees.
They do this because Chuck doesn't make them work, and he entertains them by stringing yarns about his pre drug mart days.

Chuck likes to tell two stories.
One where he and his highschool buddies drank a case of beer and went joyriding
The other is about the night that his wife told him he wanted a divorce.
He got a fifth of whiskey and burned shit in his backyard.
His wife asked what he was doing, he replied, "I guess that's none of your business now".

Chuck has a new girlfriend.
He tries to get you to buy leggings from her MLM.

You'd much rather stock 20 pallets for 8 hours over receipt scribbling.

Alas, you are hardly scheduled for stocking.

You've got tits and a nice smile so you belong front and center.

You pace the 8 foot block of space behind register one.
How many calories can I burn by doing this?

However, you will stock on truck days.
Determined to get pop tarts on shelves despite anything in your personal life.

10 Taylor, Drew, and Sean 81.5

The main cast of Drug Mart's bromance movie.
The long term druggies, the fellow full timers.

Taylor is 24

He works at the video rental counter in cosmetics.

That's right. Drug Mart may be the last existing video rental store in the United States.

Unprompted, He tells you that you're a "low 8".

Wow

Pretty enough to achieve a higher number, but be careful. Don't get a big head. Your 8 status is low- wavering toward a seven.

He is most likely still in love with you some six years later.

Sean is 32. A quiet book keeper.

Sean has the most impressive beard at drug mart.

Sean still lives at home- no judgement.

His favorite thing in the world is craft beer.

He is learning German and my favorite.

Drew completes the trio.

He is my age. He goes to art school.

They play DND on Thursday nights.

11 Children and a Recipe for Lean 89.65

At least once per shift you will get a gaggle of children into the store.

They can ride their bikes here and buy candy.

It's a cool hangout spot in this suburban decay.

Two kids around 11- 13 will come in and buy Sprite and Jolly ranchers.

Innocent enough. They pay with crumpled bills no doubt earned from doing chores.

The woman behind them will inform you that they stole a bottle of Nyquil.

You crack up. They're obviously trying to launch their rap careers.

You kindly explain to this woman what "lean" is and why it's not going to work.

Lean is codeine sprite and jolly ranchers.

Nyquil doesn't contain codeine. You need a prescription for that.

These kids either throw up a lot or sleep very soundly tonight.

Apparently this woman was not interested in the mechanics of making purple drink.

She places her items on the counter.

You shave half your head.
Things get real existential.

The next day you call in sick to work for the first time ever.
You say you don't feel well, which is the truth.

You spend the summer reminding each other that the other person matters.
The world is a better place with you in it.
Drew gets upset that you do not want to commit.

He suddenly cuts contact when you go to school.
You will probably never see him again.
You send him a letter to his apartment complex.
You hope he is doing okay.

14. DND 114.10

You get invited to DND
You don't get it.

You get way too drunk.
Drew and Taylor fight
over who gets to drive
You name.

Drew wins.
He needs therapy, but would rather always do it for free.

You spend time with him - newly single and he is hopeful.

You accidentally do fake drugs together.
You shave 1/2
your head.

Things get real existential.

The next day you
call in sick to work for the first time ever.

You say you don't feel well, which is technically the truth.

Summer reminding

15 The wildest
shit you've ever seen 122 25
the overly white supremacist skin

The overtly white supremacist- skin head buying a thank you card.

The woman with a death grip on a loaf of bread.
Every piece in the middle is completely smashed.

The woman in such a hurry- running to the counter, but also buying placemats with all of the president's faces.

Printing out several photos of a macabre fetus funeral.
Physical copies of a miscarriage sliding from the photo printer.
The family holding, kissing ,and placing it before a wooden cross in their home.

A man fervently licking his lips with a single can of chilli.

A couple in the throws of addiction picking out an engagement ring at the jewelry counter.
That's right, we have a jewelry counter in the video rental department.

A man banging on the door at 9:58 begging to be let in because he only needed one thing.
Mayonnaise , lemon and lime. That's 3 things.

16 Emma 130.40

Emma is 17.
You are training her.
She is too young to ring up alcohol.
She tells you everything.

She got this job to try to be "good".
She's been expelled from school.
It's not important why.
She tells you about the time she spent in the ED unit.

Now 21 you can't help but see yourself in her.
Maybe drug mart will function as a place of growth for her too.

Later you find out that Emma was harassed by one of the workers at the pizza place next door.
He would come in often, even before she worked here.
He tried to touch her and smell her hair.
Emma is 17.
He got banned from the store.

You failed to teach her the most important thing for women in customer service.
How to tell creeps to fuck off.

17 The Last Leg 138.55

The last day of minimum wage jobs are always anticlimactic.
Ron gives you a big hug and tells you you'll be missed.
So does Chuck.
Kevin thanks you for your hard work.

Sean gives you a, "Until the next life" kind of head nod.
Drew and Taylor both got fired for drawing inappropriate doodles. Oops.

Pat's long gone. She got let go after giving away 400 dollars in incorrect change.
You wonder if any of the regulars will notice you are gone.

Turmoil, recovery, and growth took place behind register one that nobody knew about.
Hours of your youth documented, calculated and given back in minimum wage.

When the transaction is completed the dust will reform on the tops of those shelves.
You are left with this.
And they are hopefully left with a few laughs and the memory of someone who helped the shift go by a bit faster.
