

Dear Friend,

The Grand Rapids Michigan Gop Red PAC event went over like a lead balloon with sparse attendance today. Turns out not many people are excited about Peter Hoaxtra's plans to sell America down the river. Compare for example the 4th District meeting help by Hoaxtra as versus the one held in accordance with Michigan law by Ken Buyer.

The MIGOP real event:

The reality is that more reporters than delegates showed up:

The result was near empty caucus rooms:

Many want to know, what is the legal status of this mess...I have uncovered through a couple confidential sources an internal memo that may be of interest to you all! A letter from a sincere PATRIOT DELEGATE!!!

I am DANIEL J. HARTMAN, JD, and I am writing you in my official capacity as duly elected Precinct DELEGATE from Little Traverse Township, Emmet County, Michigan.

Dear fellow Republicans of Michigan.

I had the responsibility of serving as the General Counsel of the Michigan Republican Party when I was elected unanimously by the Michigan State Committee in May 2023. This was not a position I sought as I was merely in attendance at the committee as a duly elected member of the state committee from the 1st District when asked to serve (a seat I had to resign from when I became an officer of the state committee). I continued to serve as General Counsel until February 27, 2024, when a Circuit Court Judge entered an order stating that Kristina Karamo was removed on January 6, 2024.

In the same meeting that Karamo was removed (according to Judge Rossi) a vote on my removal was taken by the minority faction against Karamo. As such I have suspended my 'official' actions pending resolution of the lawsuit on behalf of the order.

That Injunctive order is under an interlocutory appeal (which is a process that requires a litigant to ask for permission to appeal) it will not be decided until sometime later this spring. An appeal to the Michigan Court of Appeals is generally limited to final orders of a court. This case is a long way from final as there is a jury trial scheduled for June of 2024 to decide who is the rightful chair. I am confident that a resolution. I am certain that whoever loses will then seek permission from the Michigan Supreme Court (which may or may not review the interim order as well). The Appeal process is not quick so this is a long way from over.

The appeal is on the preliminary injunction which is an order containing a special remedy that courts may use in extraordinary circumstances to freeze the status quo while cases go through court for a final trial. There are established rules for the issuance of an injunction that were violated by the judge in the case.

First, understanding the definition of the status quo requires a simple analysis to go back in time to BEFORE the controversy began. That would mean as argued on behalf of Karamo to the moment before the request for a meeting on December 2, 2023,. At worst it would be on January 5, 2024, the day before the vote for removal was held. It is established law that an injunction can not be used to CHANGE the status quo. Yet, the Judge has flipped the organization on its ear with his order disregarding a rule of law that is so clear that it is breathtaking.
